MANAKI BROTHERS International Cinematographers' Film Festival
44th Edition: The Beautiful Unknown
Bitola, 23-29 September 2023

The oldest film festival in the world, honoring the cinematographers' work, is held in Bitola, early in autumn, every year since 1979. The 2023 edition will kick off on September 23 and numerous films will be screened in several locations until September 29. On this date, on Friday, the Closing Ceremony is to take place at the Cultural Center, at 8.00 p.m. and tickets are provided for all participants at the COST event, free of charge. The Closing Ceremony will feature the Official Selection CAMERA 300 and the Macedonian-Serbian co-production feature film, Lena and Vladimir, directed by Igor Aleksov. You are all invited to enjoy the film magic while in Bitola - the home town of the first cinematographers on the Balkans, the brothers Yanaki and Milton Manaki. Manaki family name is righteously honored in the name of the Festival.
